TMCC is set to be a favourite playing ground for golfers

BY GODFREY
ROBERT

Tampines ready to strut its stuff,
Garden set for majestic makeover

In with the new and out with the old.

That would be an apt description of what transpired at Tanah Merah Country Club on the last weekend of February.

On the Saturday of February 23, the club's new Tampines course was officially opened in its full splendour.

And the following day, the club's Garden course, for long the prestigious No. 1 at the club which had hosted many world events, saw yet another closure.

But the shutdown is only temporary, probably for about 11 months before it would be revealed as yet another masterpiece with yet another massive redevelopment under the careful care of renowned course designer Robert Trent Jones Jr.

What does this mean for the club? Simple, that it always strives for excellence and will leave no stone unturned in preparing a magnificent playground for golfers of all levels and competencies because members mean a lot to the highly-esteemed club.

The redevelopment is expected take about 11 months, and the club is currently working towards reopening the Garden Course by early 2020.

It was heartening to see 65 members vote for the resolution to renew the Garden Course lease extension to 2035 at a lease premium of S$17,272,000 before GST (deadline of 11 March 2019) at an extraordinary general meeting (EGM).

It also meant that the fabulous Garden Driving Range will be closed, but the club is making alternatives arrangements to use the range at nearby Laguna National. It was also said at the EGM that the Tampines Driving Range is only expected to be ready by end May 2019.

Once that is in place, all facilities at the Tampines layout will be readily available.

It has been nine months since the new Tampines course, designed by another world-renowned designer Phil Jacobs, has been open for play to its members and guests. And the reason for the wait for the official launch was that the club management wanted to ensure that the course and clubhouse were at their pristine best.

And nothing was spared to ensure that the launch went on smoothly. The guest of honour was none other than ESM Goh Chok Tong, a keen golfer who has graced many golf events in the name of charity.

So charity was foremost in the minds of the 175 golfers on that day, with the more than S$570,000 raised going to three charities, namely MediaCorp Enable Fund, Down Syndrome Association and Stroke Support Station.

The presence of ESM Goh, who with club chairman Ng Kee Choe, presented the cheque to the three beneficiaries, was appreciated by all present for the ESM never fails to lend his name for charitable causes.

The 15-month long redevelopment to the Tampines layout means that it is now a championship course that has been slated to host many major events in the future.

So all in all, by 2020 the TMCC will be a favourite golfing paradise for members and guests and a drawcard for the world's best players to strut their stuff.

Dawn of a New Era at Tampines

Nothing but praises sung for the redeveloped
Tampines course and clubhouse

ROBERT

Official Opening of Tampines Course & Charity Golf
Saturday, 23 February 2019

It was slated to be the Club's biggest, and most anticipated event of the year.
And it certainly turned out to be so.

With ESM Goh Chok Tong as guest-of-honour, the official opening of Tanah Merah Country Club's redeveloped Tampines course and clubhouse was done in grand style.

If the golf game drew excitement, the evening's highlight of the special dinner at the banquet room of the fabulous clubhouse was extra-ordinary, with a huge dose of pomp and pageantry.

For the newly redeveloped Tampines, it was a major departure from Garden's Spanish architecture influences and colonial inspired façade. The Tampines clubhouse boasts a more contemporary and minimalist look and feel.

Tampines even won the award for "Best Renovated Course – Asia Pacific" by Asian Golf and that in itself was a true testament to the hard work, and effort put in by the entire club.

But the universal acclaim and praise that came along with the award also meant that there were now certain levels of expectations that should be met by Tampines at all times.

With the world watching on so intently – it was evident that it was Tampines that had everything to lose.

Fortunately, the word lose, was never registered in the club's vocabulary.

Not only did the club management and organisers coordinated the entire event flow without a hitch, they also took the opportunity to showcase the different talents and capabilities of their staff.

Plus the club also managed to portray a more caring and generous side to the media and masses.

Official Opening of Tampines Course & Charity Golf

The main event of the day was the official unveiling of the plaque. This was first kicked off with a lion dance performance, where scrolls of good luck were offered to ESM Goh and club chairman Ng Kee Choe.

It took a good 10 minutes for ESM Goh and Mr Ng to unveil the plaque in front of over 170 golfers under the sweltering heat as there was a group photo taken right after the unveiling.

Not once did any golfer complain about the heat – because waiting under the hot sun was well-worth the wait if that meant the opportunity to be in a photo with ESM Goh, Mr Ng, and the beautiful plaque.

Official Opening of Tampines Course & Charity Golf

Another thing was well-worth the wait. The 15-month long redevelopment of old Tampines. Because what we have now – is a Championship Course that was lengthened by 466 metres and now stands at 6,887 metres, at par 72.

With centerpieces made out of white hydrangeas and other matching flora, cutlery sets tied with a sprig or rosemary – an elegance unlike any other permeated the Tampines Banquet Room.

Joey Chang, organising chairman of the entire event, received plaudits for a great job done, a tribute also echoed by hostess Yasminne Cheng a popular DJ from Class 95FM.

A dance by the Down Syndrome Association representatives was truly inspiring, portraying disabled children performed a Fusion Dance Ensemble.

The hearts of the onlookers went out to them, appreciating their talent, tenacity and strength.

The sponsors, who played a leading part in the massive $570,000 collection, received tokens of appreciation in the form of Batik Orchid Painting by Metta.

Appropriately, Chang said: “That TMCC was able to hit our intended target amount so quickly speaks loudly for the generosity of everyone who stepped up to donate; from corporations to golf-loving individuals with a desire to help the less fortunate.

“It’s also a wonderful and fitting way to usher in the Lunar New Year, and the reimagined Tampines course and clubhouse.”

Special thanks also went to Konica Minolta’s representative Osafumi Kawamura for being the Main Sponsor and BMW’s Christopher Wehner for being the Platinum and Hole-in-One Sponsor.

The cheque presentation by ESM Goh Chok Tong and Mr Ng was a brief event but it made a lasting impression on the diners as they too joined in to enjoy the benevolent gesture to three beneficiaries: MediaCorp Enable Fund, Down Syndrome Association, Stroke Support Station.

The majority of the diners went home with something to carry as there were almost 70 lucky draw prizes.

Fabulous new venue, superb weather

Lunar New Year Celebration
Sunday, 10 February 2019

It was a move away from the original venue. That in itself made it a “new” event. And it was appropriate. For, after all, it was the club’s Lunar New Year Celebration 2019 on February 10.

With the Garden course ready to be redeveloped, and the Tampines layout in near-full blossom, the new site was a perfect venue, with an ideal setting.

lion dances

Blessed with perfect weather, 114 golfers enjoyed a great round at the challenging Tampines course, many holes of which bared their fangs against the not-so-good golfers.

But for the participants it was more about having fun than winning.

So they soaked in all the grand frills after the golf game, beginning with the viewing of the Dragon and Lion Dance performances.

The war drums started playing outside the pre-function room. This year, Yi Wei Athletic; multi-awards winner, kicked off the celebrations with a Lion Dance performance, Cai Qing.

Held for the first time in the pre-function room – the lions leapt from high pole to another high pole and dazzled the crowd with their skills. Thunderous applause was heard during and after the performance.

The God of Fortune was embraced by the young and old while he gave away mini-red packets containing 4-D number and “golden coins” to the attendees.

The Mascot of Pig was the most photogenic feature among members and guests who posed for photographs.

The breathtaking performances enthralled the excited audience for half an hour.

Club Chairman Ng Kee Choe, deputy-chairman Choo Chiau Beng and president Ho Beng Huat received the well-wishing scrolls from the two Cai Qing lions.

The guests were then ushered into the Tampines Banquet Room by the lions, a God of Fortune and Mascot of Pig.

After the guests were seated, the lights were off and the LED Dragon dance performance was held in the Banquet room.

It was an eight-course Chinese sit-down dinner over 19 tables.

After the first course “Yu Sheng” was served emcee Wayne Chua coordinated the mass Lo-Hei in unison.

Apart from a 4D ticket, each diner also received a beautiful tin of Redondo CNY Chocolate Flavoured Cream Wafer with Chinese New Year greetings.

Emcee Wayne Chua was versatile and provided entertainment with his linguistic skills and host of games.

Games included a singing contest that brought laughter and cheers.

The event ran with clockwork precision, thanks to the good planning and execution by the Marketing team and support from the various departments.

Chairman Ng, in a short speech, thanked members for their continued support and participation and praised the organisers for making the event a successful one.

Lunar New Year Celebration

Memories were made of these

A fitting finale for Garden farewell as course is set for redevelopment

BY GODFREY ROBERT

Memories of Garden & Celebrating 36 years Sunday, 24 February 2019

Tears welled and hearts were tugged when the montage of the Memories of Garden over 36 years flashed on the screen.

And many walked down Memory Lane with tales exchanged as to how the Garden had evolved over the years since its inauguration in 1982.

No doubt, the course has had redevelopment in the long period, from a par-72 to par-70 because of land acquisition related to the expansion of Changi Airport.

But the new redevelopment which had just begun and is expected to last 11 months is one forced upon.

More land is to be lost and the driving range has to be relocated, but the course is certainly going to retain its premier status.

That status had made one of the best courses worldwide, immersed in numerous accolades it has received over the years.

That is why even global organisers descended on the Tanah Merah Country Club layout just to ensure that their events had to be staged there.

So from the Singapore Open, TMCC/JAL Invitational Championship, Kosaido Asahi Asia Lady Professionals Golf Championship, Tiger Skins, Queen Sirikit Cup, Lexus Cup and HSBC Women's Championship, the Garden course had staged some major events.

They were captured in the endearing montage on February 24 when 123 golfers played on the par-70 course for yet another last time.

During the night's dinner at the fabulous Garden Banquet Room, the showing of the montage aside, a "Memories of Garden" quiz time was staged and this continued to evoke the minds of the diners.

The two-piece band (special staff performance by Marshal Raj Mohan) was not just entertaining but also engaging.

The bingo time item delighted the crowd, so too the flashback to a hole-in-one feat by Fang Jia Wei one day previous as on the day itself no-one found an ace.

The prize presentation was done by club president Ho Beng Huat and committee members Joey Chang and Daniel Yeo.

The lucky prizes were handed by vice-captain David Soh and H&R Convenor, Kazuo Sugino.

And when the dinner ended, there was time to reflect on the opening remarks by Mr Ho, the video of well-wishes from members, written well-wishes from members, stitched together by the eloquent emcee Ian Roberts, the club's director of golf.

Overwhelming Support For Garden Lease Renewal

Extraordinary General Meeting
Friday, 15 February 2019

Members present were unanimous in accepting the offer made by the Singapore Land Authority (SLA) for a lease renewal of the Garden Course to 2035.

Sixty five members and three spouses gave the thumbs-up when they voted on the resolution to renew the Garden Course lease to 2035 at a lease premium of S$17,272,000 before GST with the deadline set for 11 March 2019.

That despite the appeal by the General Committee for a reduced price on the lease premium not being accepted by the Singapore Land Authority .

The GC's grounds of the appeal were based on how the Garden course will not only lose hectares of land but also its current Championship Course Status due to the loss of length.

The SLA considered the appeal but the Chief Valuer's Office (CVO) noted that there is currently no internationally prescribed, official minimum length that a Golf Course should be in order for it to be dubbed as Championship Course status.

After welcoming the members to the Extraordinary General Meeting at the Garden Banquet Room, club president Ho Beng Huat went to great lengths to explain the lease renewal details submitted by, and made sure that any members' doubts were clarified, and that they were fully aware of what they would be voting for.

Mr. Ho stated that the lease renewal will be in respect of a reduced land area of 480,675 square metres, and that the valuation of this rate was based on the exact rate used to calculate Tampines Course's lease extension premium.

He also then quickly informed all present members about the Official Opening of Tampines Course and Charity Golf Event (that happened on Saturday, 23 February 2019), and also the Garden Course Closure Game (the following day).

Mr. Ho also shared that The Garden Course Redevelopment Project is expected to take about 11 months, and the club is currently working towards reopening the Garden Course by early 2020.

Mr. Ho then left club captain Lee Lian Hong to update members on the closure of Garden Driving Range and how alternatives arrangements have been made at Laguna National.

Mr. Lee also informed members that the Tampines Driving Range is only expected to be ready by end of May 2019 – and for members to be mentally prepared that sunlight may be the only source of light at the range until the electric cables are in place.

After answering all questions from members, Mr. Ho then proceeded to get the members to vote on the evening's resolution.

2-Day 1-Night Melaka Lunar New Year Shopping Trip Saturday, 19 January to Sunday, 20 January 2019

It was a trip meant for all ages.

Still, when a toddler, aged 2 years and 11 months, arrived at the meeting point at the Garden course lobby with her parents, eyes were transfixed.

She was among 41 TMCC members and guests who arrived even before dawn broke on Saturday, 19 January 2019 to embark on the Magnetic Melaka trip.

The meeting was set for the wee hour of 6.00am (in order to beat the expected jam) for the 2-day Lunar New Year shopping trip to the Malaysian state.

All boarded two 40-seater coaches which departed the club at 6.15am and headed towards the immigration checkpoint at Tuas.

Both immigration procedures went by smoothly, and upon touching Malaysian soil, the group then transferred into two more comfortable SVIP, 31-seater coaches.

There awaited two bubbly Malaysian tour guides - Aishah & Molly, who then brought the excited group to a local coffee shop at Gelang Patah for breakfast.

Soon after, began the group's first day of shopping at Freeport A'Famosa Outlet at Alor Gajah, Melaka. Everyone enjoyed major discounts of up to 80% for over 70 fashion, sports, beauty, fragrances, optical, homeware and accessories brands.

Magical Moments in Magnetic Melaka

ROBERT

The outlet was set in 180,000 square feet of open-air mall, and boasts a man-made lake. The outlet also proudly featured Malaysian-Dutch influences which were reflected in the fountains, carousels, and windmills which made up the rest of the outlet's décor. Members of course, took photos for memory's sake.

After about two hours of shopping, the group then set out to Hatten Hotel located an hour away. After checking-in and taking a short rest, more shopping awaited the group at Dataran Pahlawan mall and other nearby shopping malls & shophouses.

After which, the group headed to their much-awaited shopping venue the night market at the renowned Jonker Street at Melaka. Some members and guests decided to quench their inner shopaholic while others embraced their inner foodie, gobbling down all sorts of Melaka Street food or peranakan restaurants.

However, two members, Mr & Mrs Stephen Wee, chose to feast their eyes to Encore Melaka, a theatre performance cultural show on Melaka history where stories were told through the art of song, dance and sceneries.

The first evening at Melaka, did not end here, as some took time for massage to ease body aches and while others caught-up with friends who reside in Melaka.

The next day after breakfast in hotel, members had a different kind of shopping spree at Baba Charlie where they shopped for the best Nyonya Kueh and confectionery in Melaka.

The members then made their way to the day market at Jonker Street, this time for dry goods such as fish maw, abalone, mee sua, salted fish, belacan and of course, 100% authentic Gula Melaka. Some even managed to buy peranakan beaded shoes and Kebaya.

The group sadly had to bid goodbye to Melaka, as their trip came to a close. But not before hitting the 7-storey Paradigm Mall, the largest regional mall located at Skudai district, Johor Bahru, with over 500 outlets for some last-minute shopping.

Besides shopping at many branded shops or hypermarket, some members had a chance to indulge in a massage or getting their hair washed by someone else.

With bags and trolleys full of Lunar goodies, the trip ends with satisfying feeling ready for the Lunar New Year Celebration. After going through immigration and customs, the coaches finally reached the club at about 11.00pm.

Valentine's Tennis Mixed Doubles Tournament Saturday, 16 February 2019, 4.00pm

It was a tennis tournament with a difference.

And it was a deliberate decision to improvise on the normal format so that big dose of the fun element is injected into the event.

After all it was the "Valentine's Day Tennis Tournament". And it has to be extra-special.

So, on February 16, at the club's sports complex tennis court, three pairs indulged in the sport with a lot of variations.

So there were high cones, low cones, court strips, serve targets, normal tennis balls, red tennis balls, hexagons and clip boards.

Points were awarded for each game with couples hitting volleys at the net with the aim to drop targets off the table.

So it was all about serves, volleys, feeds (with babolat ball bags).

So this was how the event pandered out:

Game 1: The Serve:

Kim and Trevor Charon (20 pts).
Bharatt and Lim Kong Wee (14 pts).
Chin King Yew and Elaine Law (15 pts).

Game 2: The Volley:

Kim and Trevor Charon (16 pts).
Bharatt and Lim Kong Wee (17 pts).
Chin King Yew and Elaine Law (16 pts).

Game 3: The Feed:

Kim and Trevor Charon (17 pts).
Bharatt and Lim Kong Wee (21 pts).
Chin King Yew and Elaine Law (17 pts).

Eventual Winners:

Kim and Trevor Charon (53 pts).
Second: Bharatt and Lim Kong Wee (52 pts).
Third: Chin King Yew and Elaine Law (48 pts).

Kids let their hair down at carnival

Kid's Carnival Sunday, 3 March 2019, 4.00pm

When you have kids around, you don't need many frills to make an event exciting.

With that in mind, you did not need a posh hall, a major sponsor or even a guest-of-honour.

That point was underlined when noise decibels rose and activity increased at the club's Kid's Carnival on March 3 at the poolside cafeteria.

There were 17 participants for the event and all took home a tub of clay when the session ended.

The kids enjoyed themselves tremendously as they were allowed to express themselves freely by making their favourite food.

The youngest participant was only four years old and he showed immense talent in making green spaghetti with the clay.

Three prizes for the most creative designs were given away by sports executive Dean Singh.

Look out for the next Kid's Carnival on Sunday, 21 July 2019

Cheers, and the brandy gave a warm feeling

BY GODFREY ROBERT

Remy Martin Night
Friday, 25 January 2019

As always, the Remy Martin Night was an event to remember. The title may give the impression that it was going to be a "boozy" night of overindulgence in the brandy brand.

But no, it was a fun night as 39 members enjoyed a laughter and banter to the toast of "Cheers" at the Hibiscus Room. With a good drink, especially brandy, there must be good food.

So the Chinese dinner menu was tantalising and appetising. There was prosperity yu sheng, steamed soon hock, braised cabbage, steamed glutinous rice and the works.

They were washed down the digestive systems with more than sips of brandys, and what a warm feeling it was. There was only one sponzor. Who else, but Remy Martin.
